My dear Norman:

I am utterly fascinated by your paper on Mesmer. Obviously, you have researched the topic far more exhaustively than did Stefan Zweig, my only previous source of reference. The idea of using this material for a play is inspired, given the spectacular historical, medical and psychological perspective!

I should like to discuss a couple of minor points on the subject, primarily having to do with Mesmer's musical involvement.

My grateful thanks to you for joining the distinguished list of co-chairmen for our forthcoming Silver Jubilee Allegro Ball. Please let me know at your early convenience whether you have been able to speak to Chuck Young. (I trust you have received the background information I sent you on my long UCLA association).

Yours ever,

Henri Temianka
